OPDIR 0247-21 and OPDIR 0480-21

Require users to submit for authorization in order to obtain write to removable media privileges. Initial processing of OPDIR 0247-21 and OPDIR 0480-21 requires all users who are currently utilizing write to removable media capabilities to be added to the 1st Network Battalion whitelist in order to maintain this ability. If your device has not been whitelisted, you will receive a McAfee Data Loss Prevention pop-up that states "You have plugged in an unauthorized removable storage device into a MCEN computer system. Please contact your local ISSM for details." If the external storage device is not whitelisted, users will lose the ability to write to the device once the McAfee Data Loss Prevention policy is implemented. Contact your unit's Information Systems Coordinator (ISC) in order to initiate the whitelist waiver process.

WHAT'S YOUR PLAN? COMMISSARIES OFFER SAVINGS ON EMERGENCY SUPPLIES

Since 2020, the sheer number of severe storms exhausted the list of designated names. According to meteorologists, the outlook for 2022 is more of the same. Before the next hurricane or other severe storm occurs, the Defense Commissary Agency advises its patrons to be prepared and use their benefit to save money on their emergency supplies, said Marine Sgt. Maj. Michael R. Saucedo, the Defense Commissary Agency's senior enlisted advisor to the DeCA director. Read the entire news release online:

DeCA's JULY 4-17 SALES FLYER INCLUDES SAVINGS RELATED TO 'THRILL OF THE GRILL' SUMMER MEAT AND PRODUCE, NATIONAL GRILLING MONTH AND MORE

The Defense Commissary Agency's (DeCA) Sales Flyer

(<https://www.commissaries.com/rewards-and-savings/savings-center/featured-items-sales->

flyer) for July 4-17 offers customers opportunities to save even more by purchasing promotional products.

DeCA's latest sales flyer features savings specific to "The Thrill of the Grill" summer meat and produce promotion and National Grilling Month, and offers customers many opportunities to maximize their benefit through other sales events. Information related to Feds Feed Families donations is also included.

Also featured in the flyer is the "Thinking Outside the Box" (TOTB) recipe for Chicken Enchilada Casserole. Thinking Outside the Box recipes are dietitian-approved and offer quick, healthy and economical solutions for home-cooked meals. Customers can save even more on the items listed on TOTB recipes.

Additionally, the sales flyer has the updated Pathway to Savings - "Instant savings and buy one, get one (BOGO) free" deals - and a select group of Commissary Rewards Card digital coupons. Many more digital coupons are available through <https://shop.commissaries.com/digital-coupons>. Pathway to Savings "BOGO Free" is not available for overseas stores. However, overseas customers can also enjoy instant savings by visiting their stores for selection and pricing.

Please see the attached sales list for multiple savings opportunities!

COMMISSARIES LEAD DOD EFFORT IN COLLECTIONS FOR FEDS FEED FAMILIES

On June 3, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) kicked off its 13th annual Feds Feed Families (FFF) campaign, aimed at encouraging employees from federal departments and agencies to give in-kind contributions - food, services, and time - to food banks and pantries. This year's campaign runs through Sept. 30, and marks the third year in a row the Department of Defense has designated the Defense Commissary Agency (DeCA) to lead its effort, said Randall "Randy" Eller, the agency's director of logistics. "It's an opportunity for DeCA to take the lead and expand our expertise in 'serving the most deserving' to the wider American public," said Eller. "It really demonstrates the Department's commitment to helping people in need, as well as the generosity of both commissary employees and the military patrons who shop with us."
